

Finding Analyst Reports

As an Owen student, you may need to find analyst reports. Analyst reports are available from multiple Walker Management Library databases. OneSource, Company Dossier and Thomson One Banker are highlighted below. All three databases are accessible from the Walker Management Library homepage.

OneSource

1. Use the drop down menu under "News & Reports" to select "Analyst Reports."

Company Dossier

- 1) Type a company name in the search box and then click the search button.
- 2) On the results page, click the link for the correct company.

- 3) Once on the company page, scroll down the links in the left hand column and select "References."
- 4) Once in the references section, scroll down to the section called "Research and Analyst Reports."
- 5) Click on the link for the analyst report you would like; once you open the link, you can download the pdf.

Thomson One Banker

- 1) Please note that you must use Internet Explorer for this database to run properly.
- 2) Search for a company by name or ticker symbol.
- 3) Select the correct company by clicking on its link.
- 4) Once in the company area, scroll down the links in the left hand column and select "Research" then "Research Reports."
- 5) Once the reports appear, use the "View" button to see the full report.

An additional source for analyst reports is the Bloomberg database. Walker Management Library has two dedicated Bloomberg terminals located on the first floor of the library. Bloomberg has its own tutorials and training materials available within the databases and in binders next to the terminals. Please ask at the library service desk for help in logging into Bloomberg. Bloomberg access is limited to current Owen users only.
